Magistrate recommends that the same concession might be shewn to the present owners as the nature of the work in the factories requires that work ~~Sundays~~ should be conducted even on Sundays. The manager of the factory explains that by allowing only two Sundays in the month being treated as holidays the workmen would be gainers by 1 rupee a month and that the compelling the factory being closed every Sunday the factory would also be put to a loss. The only reason which could be entertained for granting the concession asked for is what could be brought under sub-clause (i) under clause c of sub-section (2) of sec: 5 B. i.e. "the work performed necessitates continuous production for technical reasons"

Dear Sir.

I have the honour to write you re the closing of this factory every Sunday and would like if you would lay the matter before your Govt for their Consideration, so that we might be exempted from closing this factory every Sunday.

As you are aware we refine Sugar from Palmyra Jaggery, and it is essential once the jaggery is melted, to Convert the liquor into Sugar as soon as possible, otherwise fermentation sets in. We are Compelled to work this factory day and night for this very reason - The factory is worked in shifts of 6 hours on and 6 hours off with an interval of one hour given to each person for food When we stop every Second Saturday, the labour
